“ I'm grateful that in the last 2 1/2 years that i got the opportunity to build our relationship together. i cant remember many memories as a child but i have always loved you and wanted to stay the night at your house. Even with that scary picture that was in the guest room. . I'm glad that we got to have our silly talks and hangout and have me fix the TV for you almost every single day :) You are a very strong women. As a kid, i noticed you always took care and help my cousins. I didn't know why but as i got older, i saw a women who cared and was willing to make sacrifices to make sure they were good in life. They were lucky to have you be their side. I love you Grandma and you are missed. Please watch over us as a family and help us grow together and be there for one another. RIP Grandma, I love and miss you XOXOXOXOXOXO

“ Grandma I love you and miss you so much you always watched over us all these years and now you will be watching us as an angel in heaven. You were always strong and made sure us kids had what we needed you sacrificed your life for your children and grandchildren and I will forever be grateful that God made you my grandma. As I child I was scared I would be left out of the school camping trip but you paid all the fees and made it happen for me. At the time I had no idea but now I know u was always my angel. I love u and will miss u so much....love jazzy baby *Gordons voice
