“ Charles, Ed's cousin has shared a wonderful memory and endearing sentiment:

A man of true dignity, the more I look, the more I remember my big cousin who were so unselfish, kind, loving and concern about the needs of others in his own way. in recent years here in Northern California he would visit us, then after all the greetings, back and forth discussion about old times, family fun, and so on, seemly as the conversation prolong, a pause, ...at a quick glance Nu-Nu would always see something that appeared to be broken and needed to be fixed, then the question..."What wrong with your computers Charles"? Doing that time we had some old computers around, and my son would always completely take them apart as a school assignment, but he were never able to put it back together again, Jeanette and I were computer illiterate, so we just kept them there in the family room, two broken computers for show. But when Nu-Nu, came by and seen them, he inquired about them, then ease over there, set down, open them up, examine them, exchanging parts from one computer to another until the job was done, then he presented them to us ...FIXED!!! HE DID THIS AND SO MUCH MORE AND I FEEL FAVORITE THAT GOD ALLOWED ME TO HAVE THAT FINAL PERSONAL CHAT WITH HIM ONLY WEEKS BEFORE HE DEPARTED THIS LIFE. And for some reason or another I believe the Lord had me thinking about your dad tonight Renee, not in a sad way, although I do regret I didn't take more time visiting, butI regard that as another life lessons. Some wrote; I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY BUT ONCE; ANY GOOD, THEREFORE, I CAN DO OR ANY KINDNESS THAT I CAN SHOW TO ANY HUMAN BEING, LET ME DO IT NOW, LET ME NOT DEFAR NOR NEGLECT IT, FOR I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY AGAIN. +MY TRIBUTE ONCE AGAIN TO A OUTSTANDING BIG COUSIN+ EDWARD BONNAFON I SALUTE YOU !!!

Thank you Charles for sharing. It is nice to hear things about my dad. Thank you so much! <3

“ Alicia Walker, grandchild of Edward, wrote something beautiful that we would like to share here:

Saying goodbye to a loved one is never easy. But the word 'goodbye' seems almost like its purposed wrong in this scenario. Half of your life's work inspired me to join the military. Your non-stop, on-the-go movement helped me understand what it means to work hard for the things you want in life. Your unwavering devotion to your family helped mold me to be the mother and wife I am today. You never really say goodbye when someone impacts your life on such a level. I had enough time with you to be appreciative for your presence and know how possible it is to change someone's life just by living mine as a good woman. Thanks Pops, I will miss you....

“ My love and prayers continue to go out to Renee, Justina, and their entire family. I have always been so touched by how close this family is. It was so obvious that his kids were his pride and joy! May your faith and the love of family and friends hold you close during this difficult time!

“ In memory of a kind man, my father and I send you our love. I have wonderful memories of Mr. Bonnafon. Talking about him recently with an old friend of his, my dad Charles Davis, put such a smile on both of our faces. He will be missed. Keeping you in our prayers.
