“ We were at SHA for posse practice and a lady asked Greg to pose for some kind of a muffin commercial. He did and it was a hoot. What muffins had to do with cowboys and horses none of us could figure out!!! ”

“ Enjoyed knowing you Greg. I will cherish our memories at SHA, meetings, horse gatherings, and your sense of humor. I still have some of the hilarious e-mails you shared. You have left a void that will be filled with happy memories. Rest in peace. Until we meet again.

“ I had a dance recital when I was a little girl. I remember afterwards my dad being there in his "Big truck" with a bouquet of beautiful flowers one for me and one for my friend that lived across the way from us.

I miss you so much dad and I hope that you are up there fishing with Grandpa. I love you

“ When I was up at the most earliest of hours feeding my daughters, both times Greg would message me a good morning or some kind of funny little conversation starter to get me laughing in those early hours. I have always enjoyed our conversations be it facebook or while we visited them. Missing you lots greg.

“ Greg was such an adorable little boy, when we were moving to California he wanted to go and told us that he would just wait in the car. As the years went by we lost touch, but thanks to facebook, I enjoyed Greg's sense of humor. Greg will be so missed, but with so many family and friends with great memories he will never be forgotten. Love you "Little Cuz" , Linn

“ Before I even met Greg, he went to a job site and retrieved a valuable tool bag out of a tool box I had left unlocked on my water truck. I have held high regards for him since. Out party boat fishing trips were always fun because Greg was on board. Greg was also a welcome sight on job sites that we shared. Rest in peace my friend.
