“Dear Family, I am saddened by the loss of my cousin, Julie. We shared fun times grown-up together with Aunt Esther and my mom, Charlotte. Shared walks down memory lane of times of mischief as teenagers, which we'd laugh about when getting together; and we shared a precious period in time when we serviced the Lord together with cousins Rita and Elena, and other family. But life and cares of this world always seem to pull us away from the peace we find in Christ Jesus, but I want to share that Julie made peace in her heart and rest for her soul with God before she left this earth. I believe she would want the same of each of us. My God's Peace Be with You All, Cousin Carol and Louie
