“Kurt will be sorely missed but never forgotten. He was a great friend and always had his sense of humor. I truly enjoyed our time together at work and play. He had a great respect for others and was just damn fun to be around.

I will always remember and be thinking of you ole buddy. Enjoy those Cubans up there and keep an eye on us.

Your good friends,

Bob and Ronda Barth

“ I am very grateful to have been a part of so many wonderful times I've shared with Kurt. We had a great friendship throughout the many years we shared. I personally have always admired Kurt's many talents, and he did have many. The one talent that was most obvious to most, was his technical abilities and skills. He had an amazing, above average mechanical aptitude. Kurt could analyze, pin point and rectify most any problem, from the most simple to the very complex...effortlessly. More importantly, he was always willing to help his less talented friends. I being one of the main recipients of his kind and charitable nature. He was always there to help his friends, family and even strangers at any given point. Kurt also had a wonderful sense of humor, an infectious smile and a real ability to make others around him laugh, even in the closing chapters.

Kurt had many loves in his life. He loved smoking his cigars, home improving projects, fixing and tinkering, playing bingo, traveling and helping others. But above all, he loved his wife Susan. Kurt proved to be a truly devoted husband and partner. His love and devotion was evenly matched with Susan's love, strength and care, clearly exemplified through those most difficult times. Needless to say their commitment to each other and priorities in life were spot on. Also, the loving care and kindness Kurt provided his mother during her weaning years, placed him in the category of a true-life hero in my eyes.

He will certainly be a missing element in my life, but the wonderful memories I have of him will always be comforting. I am the most proud of the way Kurt faced his biggest and final challenge in life. He persevered, maintained a great outlook throughout and always managed to share his beautiful smiles and his infectious laughter. He bravely faced and accepted the inevitable. The strength and courage Kurt exemplified, will always serve as a positive influence in my life.

RIP my beloved friend and brother. You will forever live in my heart and loving memories.

Your friend forever Stephen (DD)

“Kurt, like you always said" brothers from different mothers". You are and always will be my brother and will miss talking with you. You have made a difference in my life from the day you fell ill from this terrible disease. You showed what strength & courage is, in face of adversity.

Susan, my wonderful sister, you were his rock, and I know you made the last few years of his life as comfortable and loved as possible, Words are so hard to express my Love for you both today and always...

Love & Prayers to you both!

“ Rest in Peace little Kurtie-Bird; you will always be in my prayers and thoughts. You showed us strength in dealing with adversity. I will always remember and cherish your love of life, laughter especially when having your favorite stake with picketed garlic and rice topped-off with a good cigar, glass of cherry and off-course Alfa Romeo chatter.

Susan: You were god sent for Kurt; I admire your attitude, courage and strengths during these very difficult times. May god bless you with many years of healthy and happy life cherishing memories of your good times together with Kurt.

As always love,
Morteza

“ Thank you Kurt for "forcing" me to say hello to you when you let me in thru the security door at DOJ over 20+ years ago. If you didn't have that outgoing and friendly personality, I would've missed out on a wonderful friendship. Your laughter was contagious and unique to whom God created you to be. I've enjoyed the blessings of this friendship with you and Susan. I will miss you deeply my friend. Now you can rest in the loving arms of our Lord. By the way, I know I was always your #1 BFF, and I "promise" not to tell Stephen.

Susan - it takes a strong & dedicated woman/wife who stays committed to her wedding vows to love in sickness and in health. You've done that and more. Very grateful for our friendship. Love ya!

“ It just so happened that I was in the right place at the right time to get to know Kurt. When he approached me with a "proposition you will not be able to refuse", I had no idea that he would change me life so much. His eternal smile and kindness is second to none! I will be forever grateful to him for making me a better person and the world a better place for us all. Rest now my friend, free from disease. Smoke your cigars without fear of cancer and eat as much pizza as you wish without gaining any weight (hate you for that one)!! I will miss you forever, but say goodnight to you every night.

We had lots of laughs and good memories working at DOJ. I met Kurt when he first gave me a parking ticket and then got to know him even better after working in TAC together. He thought it was hilarious that he gave me that ticket!! RIP Kurt with that big cigar in heaven.
