“ It is with a very heavy heart that I receive the news of Noreen's passing. Paula and myself have known Noreen in a professional capacity for over 15 years. She was truly a Joyous, Trustworthy, Loyal and Caring person. Our last contact with Noreen was last fall. She explained her health issues with nothing less than Bravery. I know that Noreen has been welcomed in Heaven with Angels Singing. As a person who deals with hundreds of people a year, I can Honestly say Noreen is a one-of-a kind. Truly one of Gods Greatest Creations. Rest In Peace Noreen. Paula and John

“ Angel's Wings,

*Noreen had strength That couldn't be bought
While others would whimper, She stayed strong and fought.
2 tumors For 7 months in a row
If she was suffering, Nobody would know.
Well months passed, And minutes flew
Her time was getting shorter, As her love for life grew.
Well one day, God asked her To go get her wings
And join him in paradise Doing heavenly things.
Her friends would all miss her, her family, too.
That charisma, that smile Making each day new
Everyday I wake up And I pray to her loud,
"Noreen love , I hope You're having fun In the clouds.
Goodnight my Friend Noreen xoxox*

“ I was great friends with Noreen in school she was so beautiful and loved by all we lost touch when she moved to California where she settled and had her family..we found each other on face book was so trilled we reminised about school and our family's.. Then she texted me one night saying Margaret I have something to tell u up and telling me the sad news.. I couldn't believe she was going to loose her life to a horrid illness which she didn't deserve.. To young to be taken but one thing for sure heaven has received a beautiful beautiful angel.. My condolences to all the Cahill and Ching family.. Rest in peace Noreen..xx
