

William Henry Baldwin

February 15, 1947 - August 30, 2016

William Henry Baldwin known to friends as “Bill” and family as “Corky” passed away on August 30, 2016 surrounded by his siblings. He was born in Oroville, CA on February 15, 1947 to Henry Baldwin and Roberta Hollen. He grew up in the bay area attending Pleasant Hill High School and Marin Junior College. He joined the US Navy as part of the Seabees assigned to Vietnam during 1964 to 1966. The war experiences and Agent Orange exposure became a major focus of his life.

He settled in Eagle Point, OR and drove truck for many years. There he fished and hunted when he could. He joined the Baptist church and enjoyed the sense of community worship.

He returned to Sacramento, CA in 2011 to be near his brother Steven (Joyce) Baldwin, sister Deborah (Joe) Pulcini, sister Melody Baldwin and his daughter Sara S Baldwin. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Sacramento Stand Down <http://standdownsacramento.org/>

A military burial is planned for Sacramento Valley National Cemetery.

“ Melody (& Family),

My deepest condolences for the loss of your brother. Although I never had an chance to meet him I did hear a lot of wonderful stories about him and the whole family. I sincerely thank him for his service to our country during a very difficult time in our nations history.

Sending you all my love, thoughts and prayers.

“ He use to make me laugh when Mom would tell him to get on the ball and clean his room. So he found the football and tried to stand on it.

*His little sister,
Melody*
